

EDUG-683 : Practicum in Leadership and Supervision

The practicum will allow students to engage in field-based experiential learning experiences that will integrate theory and practice of leadership and supervision. The practicum supports student knowledge, skills, and dispositions through practical experiences that will allow for the development and assessment of leadership and supervisory skills. Students will strengthen their skills as curriculum and instructional leaders and gain practice and competency in leadership and supervision.

Credits 3

Instructional Method

LEC

Semester Offered

Spring