

MBA-685 : Business Internship

Supervised experience in a business, government, to the student's area of interest. Graduate internships involve management-related work experience that is substantial, provides significant contributions to organization goals, and involve considerable responsibility. Pass/Fail grading.

Credits 3

Instructional Method

LEC

Notes

May be completed only once.

The internship may count as a concentration elective provided that the work is primary related to the concentration.

Students may not use a pre-existing position as their internship.

Semester Offered

Fall

Spring

Summer