

EDUG-731 : Writing Methods for Teaching All Learners

The goal of this course is to assist teachers in developing the writing skills and processes of K-12 students in diverse classrooms, including but not limited to English Language Learners and students with disabilities. At the conclusion of the course, students will show familiarity with current theories; plan and implement tiered interventions for writing; apply a variety of assessment tools for the purpose of data collection and analysis; teach and interpret student work and assessments in an equity framework; and integrate technology in the writing process. Students from across specialty areas will apply this knowledge within the MTSS decision-making model. Field experiences required.
