

EDUG-610 : Advanced Teaching and Learning

An in-depth exploration of fundamental questions about teaching, learning and human development designed to facilitate more meaningful classroom teaching. The course is highly interactive with learning taking place through individual and group research projects, seminar discussions, student directed workshops and presentations; thus facilitating the development of teachers as researchers and educational leaders.

Credits 3

Instructional Method

LEC

Semester Offered

Spring